THE COUNTY FAIR.

A Scene of Activity at the Fair Grounds.

Fine Exhibits in the Horse, Cattle and Swine Departments.

A Large Number of Exhibits Arriving on the Grounds.

A visit to the fair grounds this afternoon demonstrates the fact that about the weather prove favorable, the exhibition will be a success. A large number of men are engaged with hammers and saws, putting exhibits in their proper order, and by to-morrow noon everything will be in readiness for an inspection by the general public.

The show of stock will be very fine, that of horses, cattle and swine, the best ever seen in this county at a similar fair. The horse department is full, and embraces some of the finest animals in the country, while the cattle department is but very little behind that of horses.

A substantial string of articles and animals are constantly arriving and demanding room for exhibition. The machinery department is fast filling up and the exhibition will be a credit to the exhibitors and the fair association. The different halls are being filled with articles in their respective classes, and everything indicates that the fair will be a commendable success in all its various departments.

To-morrow will be children's day, when all children will be admitted to the grounds free of charge, and an excellent programme has been arranged for their entertainment. The following is the programme:

WEDNESDAY—CHILDREN'S DAY.
11 a. m.—Foot and sack races, boys and girls riding.
12 m.—Entrance close.
1 p. m.—Bicycle contest between the Beloit and Janesville clubs.
2 p. m.—The grand parade in which there are eight horse teams.
3 p. m.—The farmer's race.
5:30 p. m.—Fun all day.

The committee of the Grand Army post is hard at work completing the arrangements for the barbecue on Thursday, erecting their tables, and the oven for roasting the ox.

Everything is most favorable for a grand success, and should the weather be favorable we look for a large attendance.

Love and Law.

Lappin's music hall, no doubt, will be crowded this evening to welcome the return of Milton Nobles, the comedian.

Mr. Nobles never fails to please his audience, and the play to be presented this evening is such that he will have an opportunity to exhibit his great powers as a first class comedian. The New York Evening Telegraph of April 22, says: "A large audience assembled last night to witness the comedy-drama of 'Love and Law,' by the author-actor, Mr. Milton Nobles, produced for the first time in this city at the Fourteenth street theatre. The excellent singing and splendid acting of Miss Dollie Nobles, and the capital characterization of an attorney-at-law by the actor, contributed in no small degree to the success of the piece, and demanded the unanimous approval of the audience. The support is very good. The scenery is first rate, especially the picture of Brooklyn bridge and the East river. There is no doubt that New York will ratify the verdict of provincial audiences, and the Fourteenth street theatre should be crowded for the balance of the week."

Mrs. Day's Entertainment.

Canon's hall was filled last evening with a delighted audience to hear the musical and literary entertainment given by Mrs. J. B. Day, the popular elocutionist and dialect reader of this city, assisted by Mrs. Earle DeMoe, of Madison.

Prof. F. W. Spencer, and the Smith & Corlies orchestra. The programme as published in last evening's Gazette was followed. It seldom happens that an audience in this city show better appreciation than that in Canon's hall last evening. The numbers rendered by Mrs. Day each received an encore, and when she recited that horrible and thrilling piece—"The Fall of the Pamberton Mills," she appeared to better advantage than ever before in this city and won new laurels as a public reader. Mrs. Earle DeMoe, of Madison, possesses a rich soprano voice, and in her numbers last evening was well received. Mrs. DeMoe responded to an encore by singing "Come buy my flowers" in a very pleasing and happy manner.

Prof. F. W. Spencer astonished all with his wonderful playing on the guitar and violin, and received several encores. Mrs. J. D. King presiding, throughout the entertainment, at the piano. Smith & Corlies orchestra rendered their parts in a manner which greatly pleased the audience, and were loudly applauded. The entertainment was a pleasant success to all, and was highly appreciated by the entire audience.

SHE WAS POISONED.

Such was the Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

In the Case of the Unfortunate Woman Margaret J. La Sear.

The coroner's jury in the case of the death of the unfortunate woman, Mrs. Margaret J. La Sear, whose death occurred at the Central house in this city on Sunday evening, September 21st, concluded the investigations yesterday afternoon and returned the following verdict:

An inquisition taken at the city of Janesville in the county of Rock, in the state of Wisconsin, commencing on the 22d day of September, A. D. 1884, and concluding on the 23d day of September, A. D. 1884, before M. S. Prichard, one of the justices of the peace of the said county, upon the view of the body of Margaret La Sear, there dead, by the jurors whose names are herewith subscribed, who being duly sworn to inquire on behalf of this state, when, in what manner and by what means the said Margaret La Sear came to her death, upon their oath do say that the said Margaret La Sear, on the 21st day of September, 1884, in the city of Janesville, aforesaid, came to her death by the means of poison, but by whom administered the jury are unable to determine.

M. S. PRICHARD, Justice of Peace.
J. W. NASH.
S. HOLDREDE, Jr.
W. S. BENNETT.

M. H. CURTIS.
A. CATEMAN.

Dated, September 27, 1884.

The testimony of Drs. J. B. Whiting and Henry Palmer, the physicians conducting the post-mortem examination, showed that the brain and lungs of the deceased person were in a congested condition previous to her death; and that her throat and stomach bore unmistakable signs of poison, but from the time in which they had to make the examination they were unable to determine the kind of poison. Upon hearing the evidence of Drs. Whiting and Palmer, the jury found the above verdict.

OUR VETERANS.

By MARION JEFFREY NICHOLS.

Come "rally round the flag" again, Ye veterans of the war! And may your tread be firm as when You marched to Freedom's aid.

No doubt for you have to meet As in the days of old, But honored comrades here may greet, And tell your stories o'er.

No doubt of war our hands are armed, No doubt the latest arms, No doubt the latest courage here may greet, We hear and now, the call "to arms!"
